LIFE SAVING CREW COME TO RESCUE

Woodland Man Is Taken From Perilous Spot On Rock

Men from the Point Arena life saving station, the Point Cabrillo lighthouse and an expert line caster cooperated in the rescue of Charles Lindheimer of Woodland from an almost submerged rock west of the Stickney ranch near Little River.

Lindheimer and C. N. Scoggins of Woodland came to the coast country last week to take advantage of the abalone tides. They put up at the Lazy Eye camp at Little River and Friday afternoon went to the rocks on the Stickney ranch to gather mussels for fish bait. It was not low tide and a sea was running. Lindheimer tied a rope about his waist and went to digging for mussels while Scoggins stood back a distance holding to the rope.

A big wave came in and swamped Lindheimer and drove Scoggins back from his post and in his haste to get away Scoggins lost his end of the rope.

Lindheimer freed himself of the rope and rubber boots and managed to reach a rocky point a hundred feet away and climbed to temporary safety. Seeing his companion safe for the time Scoggins went back to the camp and notified the Point Cabrillo station and two men were sent down. They were not equipped for rescue work so the Point Arena life saving station was called and men arrived about an hour after Lindheimer had climbed on the rock, with the tide coming in and his situation becoming more dangerous.

It was then that Scoggins brought his casting pole into play and laid a 100-foot cast on the rock where Lindheimer could pick it up. After that it was a matter of Lindheimer pulling in the line with a rope attached, and successively a cable heavy enough to support a breeches buoy and Arthur Fulcher of the coast guard went out and Lindheimer was hauled in.

The following day Lindheimer went abaloning.

Coleman's Groceteria Is New Boonville Firm

Coleman's Cash and Carry Grocery came into being at Boonville on May 1 under the ownership of Orville Coleman, former manager of the Ukiah Safeway Store. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman are now settled in their new home at Boonville, which adjoins their store.

The grocery business was a going concern which the Colemans purchased from Carrol Ornbaun and carries a complete line of groceries, meats and vegetables. They sold their Ukiah home to the Ornbauns who will keep it as a rental property.

Harlan Nichols of Hopland has been appointed county fish rescue officer.

Elementary School Expansion Program

The bond election for the purpose of voting elementary school bonds for the Ukiah Union Elementary School in the amount of $225,000 has been set for Thursday, May 13.

A statement by the board of trustees shows that during the last 10 years the elementary school enrollment has increased from 476 to 871 in grades one to eight. The kindergarten has increased from 43 to 82 during the same period, so that the total enrollment is now over 900. Some classes now have 50 pupils and all indications point toward an even larger enrollment.

The statement says, "Our school has been running inefficiently because of the lack of space. We are financially able to hire more teachers, but have no place to put them. Many classes are too large; our cafeteria needs to be expanded."

In the event that the bond issue carries, the seventh and eighth grade will be moved to the building to be erected on South Dora street relieving the congestion at the present building and giving the following facilities:

Six to eight classrooms, combination play and auditorium. lunch room-cafeteria, necessary administration area and nurse's quarters.

If more can be had for the bond money the board plans to add a shop for training shop mechanics, room for home arts for girls, music room for band, orchestra and chorus.

According to the trustees the new building is needed to relieve the intermediate grade overcrowding and care for the upper grades. Speakers to explain the school situation will be furnished organiaztion of the district on request.

Kirby L. Ford Dies After Long Illness

Kirby L. Ford, a member of one of the most prominent families of Mendocino county, passed away Monday morning at his home north of ths city following a long illness and a recent major operation.

Funeral services from the Eversole Mortuary will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Elbert Holland officiating and interment will be in Ukiah Cemetery. The pallbearers will be picked from among his first cousins.

Mr. Ford was 54 years of age and the son of W. A. Ford of Redwood Valley who came to this section in the early 90's. Kirby was the brother of Kirk Ford, county assessor, and the father of Melton, Henry and Lin Ford and Charlotte Lawton, Cleo Walsh and Nita Enright. He is also survived by his wife, Mrs. Camelia Ford.

Mr. Ford owned a ranch north of Ukiah where the family home was located and was head of the Ford Gravel & Cement Company. He was a man of many excellent traits and his friends were legion.

Two Cited In No. State Auto Crash

A North State street collision on Wednesday night of last week resulted in citations being issued to Alfred Townsend of Ukiah for failing to signal before turning into his driveway and to Reede C. Wise of the Square Deal Garage for having no license.

Both cars were traveling north and Wise was attempting to pass the car of Townsend as it was turned toward the driveway. Townsend told Police Officer Simpson that it was raining and he did not see Wise and did not signal.

Clarence Jensen, arrested early Friday morning in the 300 block on North State by Officers Griffis and Amundsen, was fined $160 for drunk driving when he appeared in Judge Pauli's court.

HAND MANGLED BY SAW

John Marshall is recovering at the General hospital from an operation performed by Drs. Arthur and Glenn Miller on Thursday of last week following an accident at his home on South State street where he was operating a power saw and suffered a bad injury to his left hand. His condition is reported as satisfactory. Mrs. Marshall recently returned home from the hospital following a major operation.

Resettlement Meeting Held

Meeting to form a Mendocino chapter of the Catholic Resettlement committee for Europe's displaced persons, a large group gathered in El Rosario in the Albertinum Sunday afternoon under the leadership of the Rev. Fr. Roger Anderson who has been named head of the movement for this county.

A. Garavanta presented Fr. Anderson who explained their purpose is a program of education and publicity on the tragic condition of Europe's D.P.s held in converted concentration camps. The problem is being studied by Jewish, Catholic and Protestant groups throughout the nation.

A graphic word picture of conditions in D.P. camps was presented by Joseph Rattigan, Ukiah attorney who explained the two major bills now before congress which, if passed, would permit displaced persons to come to this country under a quota system.

Visiting pastors were called upon and each expressed willingness to help in every way possible. Interested laymen from other parishes in the county were also present and entered into the discussion.

Out-of-town priests who attended the meeting were Fr. Richard Gleason of Fort Bragg, Fr. Leopold O'Riordon of Point Arena and Fr. Isadore Kennedy of Willits.

Drowned Man Was Piercy Resident

Joseph P. Herrick, whose remains were found last week in the south fork of the Eel river 61 miles north of Willits, had been employed in and around Piercy since the middle of last summer, going into that section from Lake county, it has been learned since the remains were found.

At the time of his disappearance on April 10 he was employed by Rudy Hyde of Piercy, who made positive identification of the remains after they were brought to the mortuary at Willits.

An oil truck driver delivering oil to the Redwood Highway Lumber Mill was the first to see the body, submerged in a foot of water. Deputy Sheriff Hollingsworth of Laytonville was notified and with Logan Anker, Willits mortician, went to the scene. With the aid of James Smith, Ralph Owen, Boyd Simpson, E. B. Knox and Sam Erickson of Piercy and Harold Walker of Leggett Valley the corpse was pulled from the river.

A post mortem by Dr. R. B. Smalley of Willits showed an abrasion on the head which could have been received when he fell from the narrow bridge and could have been a contributing cause of his death.

Time To Contribute To Annual Cleanup of Cemetery

Once again the Saturday Afternoon Club of Ukiah is sponsoring the annual cleanup of the cemetery.

The club has sponsored this project for many years and the committee in charge this year is Louise A. Bernhard, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Tracy and Mrs. Austin Smith.

Letters have gone out over the weekend to those who usually contribute to this cause, as well as the various organizations in Ukiah, who always give to the project.

Contributions should be sent to Mrs. Bernhard at 309 North State street, and it is the desire of the committee to have the work start at once in order that the cemetery may be in a neat and orderly condition for Memorial Day.

Lieut. (j.g.) Charles Paul Sutterley, secretary of the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce, is home from two weeks spent on a training cruise with the U.S.N.R.

Mother of Mine

If I could command, my Mother, sweet,
I'd ask the blue heavens to lay at your feet;
I'd give you the world, but it still couldn't pay
For the care you gave me from day to day.

If I could command, my Mother, sweet,
God would bless you forever and give you a seat
On a golden throne with robe and crown
And beautiful jewels to cover your gown.

If I could command, dear Mother of mine,
I'd roll back the years for the ties that bind.
I know I have failed you and caused you pain,
But I'd kneel at your feet for your blessing again.

If I could command, dear Mother of mine,
I'd work all my life, but there'd still not be time
To fill your last years with beauty so great
You'd forget all the things that have made your heart ache.

GAS RATES GO UP AFTER JUNE FIRST

City Pays Double For Propane On New Contract

City gas rates appear to be in for a sharp increase with announcement by Shell Oil Company to the city council Wednesday night that the city's present contract for 3.1 cents per gallon Propane will run out in June and cannot be renewed under 7.3 cents delivered at Martinez.

The contract which was made in September 1943 has provided the city with gas at a considerably lower figure than is current elsewhere since the base price began to climb during the war.

Shell Oil Company representatives, A. C. Maynard and A. F. Plumgren of San Francisco brought the new contract to the council and explained the factors back of the increase. Their visit was the occasion for a discussion of the Ukiah plant and how to meet the expansion required for new services, which Councilman R. F. Clarke estimated will be some 20 per cent above existing facilities.

Maynard advised the city to employ a competent gas plant engineer, not only to design new facilities but to fix rates. He believes heating of homes by gas should be discouraged by a rate structure that would make it uneconomical while gas supplies and equipment are scarce. He said the entire stand-by plant should be scrapped at this time while steel is scarce and scrap is bringing a good price.

SUFFERED SEVERE BURNS

Mrs. Betty Harrell is recovering at the Ukiah General Hospital from severe burns about her face which she received Thursday evening when an accumulation of gas under a coffee urn at the Busy Bee restaurant exploded. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Moore of Ukiah. For awhile it was feared that the sight of her left eye would be impaired, but it is now believed she will suffer no permanent injury. Dr. Nicholas Zbitnoff is her physician.

Will Revamp Phone Lines

Philo Subscribers To Be Served Through Boonville

Inclusion of the present Philo telephone exchange in the Boonville exchange was authorized at San Francisco April 28 in a decision of the California Public Utilities Commission.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company had requested authority for the inclusion. The company reported that the Philo exchange was established in 1919 and attained a maximum development of 42 stations in 1929. At present the exchange serves a pay station at the central office, an individual line business station and 19 farm line subscribers.

The telephone company plans to enlarge the exchange area of Boonville to include the 33 square miles of area in the present Philo exchange.

Exchange rates to subscribers at Philo will not be increased because of the proposed change and any revenue effect from a change in toll charges will be negligible, the commission decision reported.

Sidewalk Repair Made Mandatory

Under consideration by the city council is a new ordinance which will empower the city to require property owners to repair sidewalks or have them repaired by the city and charged against their property.

This procedure was suggested by City Clerk A. R. Spreckelsen Wednesday night after he announced the city's insurance rates will go up considerably if better sidewalks are not maintained.

A report by an outside engineer on the condition of sidewalks in town was presented by Spreckelsen who said he will meet with the engineer and council members next week to consider what can be done.

Councilman Russell Richardson suggested banks be asked to provide long term loans at low interest for property owners who want to comply with terms of the proposed ordinance.

4 Pretty Girls In Race For P. V. Festival Queen

The fortunate thing about the contest for Spring Festival queen n Potter Valley's approaching two-day celebration, May 15-16, is that whichever contestant wins, they'll have a good looking queen.

With two girls dropping out this week the field narrowed to four who visited the Journal office together Wednesday to have their pictures taken and illustrated the amity with which they are making the race against one another.

The candidates include Barbara Hook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hook, who has curly brown hair and bright brown eyes; she is an eighth grader. Helen Christofferson, another pretty brunette is a senior in high school and the daughter of Mrs. Geneva Christofferson of Potter Valley. Lois Rouse goes to Eel river school and is in the eighth grade. She has lovely dark hair, serious brown eyes and a lovely smile.

Vera Smith lights up the dark haired members of the quartette with bright golden red hair and blue eyes. She is the daughter of Edward Smith of Potter Valley and a high school junior. Mrs. Ted Smalley is chairman of the queen contest.

Dorothy Potts and Dolores Strickland dropped out of the race which ends next Thursday.

Don Hulbert, handling publicity for the festival was in town Tuesday and reported the rodeo is going to be the best ever this year with Marvin Holman in charge. The parade is getting well organized under the leadership of Lloyd Hughes and Lawrence Clark is putting together a program of lively athletic events.

There will be berbeques each day. Paul Poulos is putting on the Saturday out-of-door mid day banquet and the Potter Valley Riding club is in charge of the one which will be held Sunday.

Hundreds of out of town visitors are expected and the committee headed by Branson Gillogly, Herbert Pickle and L. Bufford is promising them their journey to the Spring Festival will be well worth while.

Mother's Day Speaker

W. K. DAVIS will be the speaker Sunday, May 9, at the Ukiah Elks lodge Mother's Day serivces in Elks hall at 2 p.m., to which the public is invited. Ed Jennings, exalted ruler, will conduct the services which will consist of vocal solos by Virginia Locatelli, accompanied by Gloria Pacini, and by Herb Cochrane, accompanied by Miss Lindquist. Ewert Mitchell and Gene Corbett will sing a duet.

Mother's Day services are traditional among Elks lodges all over the United States and the Ukiah observance will be the first held, the lodge having been instituted June 14, 1947.

Organize Here to Work For Scudder

A Scudder-For-Congress committee of Mendocino county was organized in the Palace Hotel Monday night in a meeting of the Republican men's and women's organizations under the chairmanship of Arthur Schilder.

Earl Maize, Jr., of Willits was named chairman of the group to promote the nomination of the Sebastopol man who has recently resigned as state real estate commissioner. He is opposed in the primary by a Petaluma Republican, Roland Webb, but the local committee voiced the belief that his personal popularity and wide acquaintanceship can easily result in his election in the primary over his opponents which include Roger Kent and Sterling Norgard.

Charles Melville of Fort Bragg was chosen vice chairman of the committee, Lloyd Bittenbender of Ukiah is treasurer, and Harry W. Falk, Jr., Ukiah, is secretary.

Modeleers To Compete Soon

May 23 is the date of the second annual Model Airplane contest cosponsored by Ukiah Lions club and Ukiah Modeleers. It will be held at the Ukiah ball park. Invitations have been sent to over 50 northern California model airplane clubs.

The program will begin at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and will last to around 4 or 5 p.m. Admission is free and there will be plenty of action with the usual crack-ups which go along with all model airplane contests. People attending Ukiah's first annual contest will not have to be urged to attend this year as they know a real show is promised.

This year there will be more Ukiah contestants as the Ukiah Modeleers have been practicing for many months and have some real flyers. The Lions club committee headed by Don Nassie with very able assistance from all club members are enthusiastic about the prospects of the contest. They feel that they are sponsoring a project which gives the maximum of pleasure to those who attend and affords many young folks a means of expressing their ability.

The model airplane business in the United States is no small thing. It is a multi-million dollar business. Chrysler Corporation is sponsoring an international contest in August at Detroit. Who can tell, maybe some of our local talent may choose to participate. There is hope that the public may find time to spend at least a few minutes at the contest to give encouragement to local boys participating.

Mrs. Dorothy Abert, Mrs. Elvah Vivian, Ramona Abert and Mavis Hooker made the trip to Fort Ross Sunday.

Alder Pt. Man Dies In Bell Springs Wreck

A short circuit that caused the horn of his wrecked truck to sound incessantly led to the discovery of the dead body of George W. Clark of Alder Point, Humboldt county, Tuesday night, pinned in the wreckage at the bottom of a 60-foot cliff and wholly screened from the highway by the dense growth of brush into which the vehicle plunged at about 6 o'clock near Bell Springs.

The post mortem at Willits showed that Clark died of a heart attack. It was also learned through the Anker Mortuary there that the dead man's father lives in San Francisco and he has children in Fortuna and Eureka. The body will be taken to Eureka for burial.

Deputy Sheriffs William White of Ukiah and Curtis Hollingsworth of Laytonville went north Tuesday night and made an investigation for the coroner's records, but the whole story will not be learned here until the report of Highway Patrolman Ingram is submitted to the Ukiah headquarters.

In the opinion of Deputy Sheriff White the accident was the result of Clark falling asleep or suffering a heart attack. White traced the tracks of the truck as it left the mountain road to where the plunge was taken and found no indication that an effort had been made to steer the truck back to the road.

The accident was at a point about a mile south of the county line, near Bell Springs. A housewife of the neighborhood heard the continuous blare of the horn and when her husband came home told him she feared someone had gone off the grade. He went to investigate, saw the tire marks and traced them to the edge of the cliff, which was a sheer drop from the road.

Clark's leg was pinned inside the truck cab while his body was thrown through the upper part of the door.

Clark was known to have taken a friend home in his truck and was enroute to his own home at Alder Point when he met his death. The officers were able to gather only fragmentary facts concerning the dead man and his movements.

The body was taken out and to the Anker Mortuary at Willits where a post mortem was ordered by the coroner's office to determine the cause of his death.

Ukiah Pound Gets Airing

Councilmen Hear Humane Society Plea For Reform

Public and official response to the plea for a better dog pound has been very gratifying, the Ukiah Humane Society said today after the city council in complete accord agreed Wednesday night to work with the organization for new and sanitary quarters for impounded animals.

Mrs. Louise Bernhard, appearing on behalf of the society told the council she had had constant phone calls since the article calling attention to conditions at the pound appeared in Monday's Journal, and with the support promised her she is confident a permanent location can be found where the animals will be better cared for. Each member of the council expressed concern over the situation and authorized the society to find a satisfactory place where the dog wards will not disturb people with their howling, and where permanent pens can be provided with an adequate water supply.

Also supporting the program for a new deal for strays, K. B. Wallach, county humane officer, announced today that all humane laws will be strictly enforced. According to state laws, a dog must be destroyed after 96 hours if not redeemed by its owner. Councilman Larry Wildberger expressed the belief there should be some laxity in the observance of this rule since, in a small community, good homes are often found for dogs if there is time to do this.

It was also reported the Ukiah Rod and Gun club will ask the council to earmark all dog license fees for a fund to provide regular feeding for the impounded animals.

The city now pays $8 per month rental for the present pens at the tallow works on Law Gop road. The council believes something can be found in the same locality which is far enough from dwellings to assure that the dogs will not become a howling nuisance.

Falk Made Member Of Bank Advisors

Harry W. Falk, Jr., attorney at law, was appointed a member of the Ukiah Bank of America advisory board. W. N. Smith, manager of the branch, who made the announcement, said the appointment increases the membership of the board to six.

Bank of America branch advisory boards function throughout the state, with members' experience and knowledge of local conditions enabling them to lend counsel to branch officials.

ANDERSON VALLEY

PHILO, May 1.—Friends and relatives were shocked and grieved to hear of the passing of Rudolph Eton of Philo, woh died at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. He had been in ill health for some time and was under the care of Dr. Powell of Philo and Dr. Oakleaf of Healdsburg. He seemed to be improving and the shock of his sudden passing was a blow to his family and friends.
Rudolph Eton was a member of a pioneer family here, and spent his entire life in this community, where he was beloved by young and old. For many years his eyesight had been almost gone, but his interest in life and interest in his friends did not diminish. His was a true Christian life and his passing is keenly felt by all who knew him.
Mrs. George Burns of Philo left for San Francisco Thursday morning where she will spend several days. She went down by bus.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Selby spent last weekend at their dude ranch, El Rancho Navarro, near Philo. They are making preparations for their opening, which will be in May.
Spending their vacation at Highland ranch this week are Mrs. Durant and Mrs. Von Wulbeck of San Francisco.
Mrs. W. McPhail of Philo who has been ill with pneumonia is now improving and able to sit up for a few hours each day.
Mrs. James Dutro of Philo is confined to her bed with a severe cold. She is under the care of Dr. Powell and is improving slowly.
Birthday night was celebrated at the regular Rebekah lodge meeting Tuesday night at Boonville. Following the usual business meeting a program was held which was participated in by all the officers. Ann Gowan read some amusing sketches; Alta Vale Zandt gave a humorous reading; Alice Gowan gave a short talk; Augusta Ruddock gave an interesting review of the beginning of the Redwood Rebekah Lodge and read the minutes of the first meeting which was held in 1926. Charmian Ward sang, Now Is the Hour, accompanied by Anna Reilly. Blaine Baxter played a piano solo; Lillian McKinney and Warden Thelma Collins told amusing stories; Arlie Clark and Kathryn Strickland read poems; Emily Presley told some amusing incidences of the first installation, and Alenna Matheson played an accordion solo. Following the program refreshments of birthday cake and fruit jello were served by the following refreshment committee; Elizabeth Gowan, Josie Gowan, Augusta Ruddock and Allena Matheson.
Don Van Zandt, who has been having a check-up in the Oakland naval hospital, returned to his home at Philo Monday. Although he is still not well, he is improving and his friends are glad to see him back.

Willits has now had 46.12 inches of rainfall, receiving 7.98 inches during April.

APPROVES COUNTY HEALTH PROGRAM

State Welfare Head Expounds Program To Meeting

The long-awaited county health program seemed near reality today when a $60,000 annual health project was outlined to the county board of supervisors, trustees of cities within the county, representatives of schools, the grand jury and civic and official organizations.

Dr. Ellis Sox, chief of the local health services of the state of California, revealed an intimate knowledge of Mendocino county's needs as he proposed the program to which the state would contribute $23,864; federal funds of $4000 would be available and the county's share would be $27,864.

He believes the program should be county wide with cities contracting for health services from the county set-up. He recommends employment of a trained county health director, a director of public health nursing, four public health nurses and at least one sanitary inspector.

Well Attended

The meeting overflowed the supervisors' chambers and was moved into Superior court chambers to accommodate all who were interested.

Considerable discussion was had on a joint program with Lake county, which has 9000 population compared with Mendocino county's 38,600 (state estimate). This revealed the supervisors, according to Chairman Ed Haehl, would approach that angle with some caution due to Lake county's swollen summer population and the resulting problems of sanitation disease and water supply.

On Mendocino county's assessed valuation of $30,000,000 the health program would mean a maximum 9-cent increase in the tax rate which could be lowered to five or six cents increase if the schools elect to contract with the county for some nursing and inspection services. This, too, was found to have complications due to the nurses' retirement act provisions which would make school nurses reluctant to come under county employment.

Committee To Meet

With the noon recess, Chairman Haehl said his committee would confer at lunchtime and report their opinions when the meeting reconvened at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Sox is an excellent speaker and his material, well organized, pictured a complete county health service which is advisory rather than competitive with private medicine and hospitals. The county health department is an extremely effective arm of ethical advertising and public education to aid private medicine, he said.

Besides the prevention and control of disease, immunization, policing, sanitation, rodent control and working with enforcement agencies, an important phase of the program is public education, including a thorough course of instruction for food handlers.

Diagnostic Laboratory

He recommends a statistical department and a diagnostic laboratory and advisory services for better rural sewage disposal, septic tank and cesspool construction and location, industrial waste control. Also, child health conferences on nutrition, disease prevention, mental and emotional health. Also, venereal disease and tuberculosis case finding clinics, rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients and home accident control.

His budget of approximately $60,000 for the first year — $58,000 was the actual estimate — would provide a public health officer trained by the state for $7500 a year — director of public health nursing fully trained at $3900 to $4200 a year; four public health nurses $250 to $275 per month; 1 sanitary inspector, salary not named, and two clerks at $2100 per year each.

He estimated annual salaries at $36,300 a year; $15,000 for maintenance and operation, including travel funds; $4000 for office expense and approximately $2500 for office equipment the first year.

Laboratory service either within or outside the proposed hospital is essential, he said, and could be set up to do private work on a fee basis but would not conflict with nor invade the field of private laboratory work.

Science Monitor Gives "Bud" Christensen Nice Plug

E. B. Christensen, former coach at Ukiah high school and now district superintendent and principal of Healdsburg high, was given prominent mention in the Christian Science Monitor magazine section of Saturday, March 27, by Robert R. Brunn, special writer for the Monitor, in his article on the air-age instruction program of California schools, titled, Students Take to Air.

In company with W. Earl Sams, chief of California's Bureau of Aviation Education, Brunn visited the Healdsburg school where 14 members of the faculty have wings. Sams and Brunn had been discussing "the only statewide program in the nation designed to qualify future voters for dealing intelligently with the impact of the airplane upon our society," and the trip to Healdsburg resulted from Sams' desire to show the Monitor man what was being done.

Brunn visited one of the Healdsburg classes in general aviation and talked with James C. Vogt, the teacher.

For two years, Brunn says, California has been conducting a program that will provide high school students with an opportunity to understand and appreciate the significance, and obligations, brought to the surface by the air age.

Home From Antarctic

DEMOCRAT ENGRAVING

ROBERT J. SAUNDERS, aerial photographer, U.S.N., who returned April 1 from his second trip to the mysterious wastes of the south pole where only the penguin and seal are hardy enough to endure its icy rigors.

Four months in the vast, uncharted regions of the south pole is one of the never-to-be-forgotten adventures of a lifetime, and yet it gives a man a deeper appreciation of home, according to Robert J. Saunders of Ukiah, aerial photographer's mate 2nd class, U.S.N., who returned April 1 from the Antarctic and visited his home at 1106 West Standley street.

He is now in Camp Miramar near San Diego where he wrote of his trip, the second he has made to the south polar regions. He was with the Admiral Richard Byrd expedition two years ago.

"A name I heard someone mention would fit that part of the world," Saunders wrote in a letter to his mother. "It is 'white darkness.' It is beautiful and inspiring, and yet you can see nothing but utter desolation of vast expanses of ice, broken only by the rippling snow. Some areas are broken by rugged, forbidding mountains. Only penguins and seals can inhabit such a land."

Of the trip he said, "On the whole, the morale of the crew was very high. Due to the strenuous duties we encountered on such an expedition as this, the best of food was provided. Movies were shown every night and other means of recreation provided the men in their free time. Of course, the thing that hurt the most was that there was no mail.

"On the return trip our 2-ship expedition pulled into Lima, Peru, for six days. Mail was waiting for us on the dock. The American sailors enjoyed their liberty very much.

"They say the best part of going away on a trip is coming home again. This case is no different and I can honestly say it is wonderful to be back in the good old U.S.A."

The trip was the navy's Antarctic Development Project and Bob Saunders travelled aboard the U.S.S. Burton Island, flagship of Task Force 39.

The Saunders family has lived in Ukiah or many years. Bob's mother, Mrs. Naomi Saunders, a widow, was born here. Her husband was a well known postal employee. Two other sons, both married, live and work in Ukiah. John, who is employed by the P.G.&E. company has a son, Craig, seven months old. Lawrence, also married and working in the Mendocino State Hospital, has a son, Lawrence Keith who is three weeks old.

Dr. Paul Chase was elected by the city council as mayor of Cloverdale

Future Homemakers Set High Personal Standards

The homemaker of tomorrow is pretty certain to be well groomed and attractive as well as mentally alert to her responsibilities and privileges as a homemaker. Such standards are set by the Future Homemakers of America and were graphically illustrated in their section convention here last Saturday, when more than two hundred students of home economics from Humboldt, Lake and Mendocino counties met in the high school.

There was inspiration to high endeavor in their theme—Homemaking, a Gold Mine of Opportunity. Self-improvement was the topic and they had expert advice from Miss Augusta Caspary of the House of Charm, San Francisco. Miss Mary Frances Inman, regional homemaking supervisor chose for her topic, Prospecting for Nuggets of Individual Leadership.

Skits Presented

Each school presented a skit on some aspect of self-improvement. Arcata demonstrated personality; Fortuna, voice; Upper Lake, posture; Eureak senior high, boy and girl relationships; Fort Bragg, clothes; Willits, baby sitting; Ferndale, establishing a home. Ukiah's contribution was a vocal solo by Gloria Martinelli.

Principal William A. Chessall welcomed the visitors to the host school. Chapter President Bonnie Vinson and Section President, Carol Brown, state officers and officer candidates and guests were introduced. Jean Dugger of Upper Lake sang two solos beautifully, with Miss Gloria Johnson as her accompanist.

The business meeting of voting delegates (Ukiah's delegates were Ruth Schamber and Nancy Ford) included the election of Edith Peterson of Eureka to the nominating committee at the coming state convention in Asilomar October 8 and 9. Donna Brown of Ukiah was chosen alternate.

Installation of Officers

At an impressive candle lighted ceremony Carol Holmes became section president and other officers took their posts as named in the accompanying picture. The new officers presided at the afternoon meeting which followed luncheon in the school cafeteria. A vote of thanks went to Mrs. Nelle Cox, advisor for untiring efforts which made the convention a splendid success; to Pat Kittwig of Upper Lake for publicity; to all who took part in the program and to the Fortuna chapter for the installation service and an invitation to hold their convention there next year; to Willits chapter for registration.

Miss Lucchesi and Arthur Matson Will Be Married Here On May 30

May 30 is the altar date set by Mabelean Yolanda Lucchesi and Arthur Raymond Matson who announced their engagement six months ago. They will exchange their vows in St. Mary's Catholic church with the Rev. Father Sharkey officiating.

Miss Evelyn Kern has been chosen maid of honor by the bride-to-be, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lucchesi, Redwood Valley ranchers for the past 20 years. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Matson of Fort Bragg where the young couple will make their home. Mr. Matson is engaged in the men's clothing business with his father there.

Miss Lucchesi attended Redwood Valley grammar and Ukiah high school and is a graduate of a school of beauty culture. She is employed in San Rafael. Mr. Matson attended Santa Rosa Junior college after finishing high school in Fort Bragg.

A bridal shower will honor the young couple in Redwood Valley Grange on May 16. Hostesses for the event to which a large group of friends is invited, will be Mesdames Frank Reed, Roy Willams and John Muir of Redwood Valley.

LEAVE ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Von Schriltz are leaving May 7 for a vacation trip to southern California where they will visit friends and relatives in San Fernando, Burbank and other cities. They plan to return to their home in Talmage on May 24.

Spring Flower Display—

The Canton room of the Palace Hotel, hallway and lobby will be a flower garden on Wednesday, May 19, when the Ukiah Garden Club puts on its Spring Flower display. It will not be a competitive event in the tradition of flower shows, but an informal display of flowers grown by garden club members to show the extensive variety of summer blooms possible to the garden lover.

The public will be welcomed by the committee of which Mrs. Ruth Kington was appointed chairmen by Mrs. George Dietterle, president. Mrs. Kington will be assisted by Mesdames J. R. Thomas, Arthur Romer, Harold Holliday, Martin Stipp, Herbert Singley, Charles Kasch, Alfred McKinney, Louis Hildreth, Joe Sotter, Werner Holzhauser and Athol Horr.

The display will be ready for visitors at 12:30 and may be seen until 8:30 p.m. While the garden club is in its first year in Ukiah, the enthusiasm of its members has resulted in special displays of iris, gladiolus and other varieties during the past year, and the Spring Flower Display on the 19th will be its most extensive exhibit. In addition to the esthetic pleasure afforded those who visit the show, it will prove valuable to gardeners in showing the many types and species of blooming plants and shrubs possible to cultivate in this area.

Morticians Hold Dist. Meet Here

Dinner meeting of Redwood Empire Funeral Directors' association in the municipal clubhouse Friday night was more social than business, and included a complimentary surprise stork shower for Mrs. Walter Eversole, wife of the association's president.

Lance-Zimmerman Ukiah chapel and Eversole Mortuary were hosts to the 82 members who enjoyed a home-fried chicken, ravioli dinner put on for them by the 7:30 club of the Presbyterian church, with club members serving the dinner which included hot rolls and home-made apple pie.

J. Wilford Corr, executive secretary of the association was among the visitors. Superior Judge Lilburn Gibson was the speaker. His topic was juvenile problems and his outlook on Mendocino county was encouraging. This county, because of alert and progressive policies does not have the incidence of juvenile crime complained of in more congested areas of the state, he said.

Guests were present from San Francisco, San Rafael, Petaluma, Santa Rosa, Guerneville, Sebastopol, Sonoma, Napa, Healdsburg, Fort Bragg and Eureka, with traveling representatives from San Diego, Los Angeles, Pasadena, San Francisco and Sacramento.

Music was provided by Everett Foster of Santa Rosa and a quartet composed of Willford Corr, Everett Foster, Arthur Parent of Petaluma and Stanley Lance of Ukiah.

Mrs. Foreman Ill, Her Family Comes To Visit

Seeseldt arrived and the following Tuesday her five brothers, Walter, Elmer, Edward, Clarence and Clifford came from their home town for a visit of a few days.

The others went home early last week and Mrs. Hartill left Wednesday, May 5, with the hope that Mrs. Forman will soon be able to make a trip to be with them for an extended visit in Washington. She was formerly employed in Hansen Stationery Store.

Relatives Of Neal Maclean Listen In On Radio Wedding Rites In Hollywood

When Dorothy Day and Neal MacLean were married in Hollywod on the Bride and Groom program which was heard locally on KGO, Thursday at 2:30 p.m., local relatives of the groom were eagerly listening at their radios.

His aunts, Mrs. Robert Rideout and Mrs. Delbert Munson of Ukiah heard their marriage vows over the air, and his uncle, Joe Binton and grandmother, Mrs. Clara Binton were listening in at Willits, already informed by letter of the coming ceremony. His father, Max Maclean also lives in Willits. His mother, Mrs. Ruth Maclean lives in San Francisco.

Immediately after the wedding, at which the bride wore the traditional white satin, and a white Hawaiian gardenia lei, the couple left for a honeymoon in Del Coronado near San Diego.

Their romance began in Hawaii while Miss Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Day of Hollywood, was vacationing in Honolulu from her work as a registered nurse. She was a cadet nurse during the war. He was employed in one of Honoluiu's luxury hotels when they met.

Sponsors of the Bride and Groom program left nothing undone to make the wedding romantically memorable to the young couple. Names of their attendants were not learned, but to commemorate their meeting in Hawaii, music of the islands was played, and featured the bride's favorite song—Blue Hawaii.

The newlyweds will live in San Diego.

Job's Daughters Plan Honor For Guardian

Dr. D. R. Pratt Wed In Stanford Chapel

A marriage of interest to local people was the recent wedding of Dr. Arlene Marjorie Mann of Stanford University hospital staff, and a nephew of Superior Judge W. D. L. Held, retired, Dr. Donald Roy Pratt in Stanford Memorial chapel.

Dr. Pratt's mother, Mrs. Roy A. Pratt of San Francisco, was the former Louise Held of Ukiah, sister of Judge Held. His brother, William H. Pratt was best man in the formal ceremony in which the bride wore a white gabardine dressmaker suit with black accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Mrs. Donald C. Moore was matron of honor.

Ushers were Dr. L. D. Howard Jr., and Dr. J. W. McKibben, Jr., of San Francisco.

The young couple will return from a Santa Barbara honeymoon to live in San Francisco where Dr. Pratt is also a member of the Stanford hospital staff. He is a graduate of the Stanford School of Medicine and served with the Army Medical corps during the war. Mrs. Pratt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Mann of Spokane, Wash.

Proceeds of the food sale, to be held in front of the J. C. Penney store Saturday, May 8, will go to the intermediate youth scholarship fund of the Methodist church, to send local young people to the camp of summer institute at either the Toyon or Humboldt camps late in July.

The sale is in charge of Mrs. R. E. Archibald and Mrs. M. E. McDonald, sponsors of the Young Crusaders group of the church. The sale will begin at 10 a.m.

The third visit will be made at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Robert O. LeBaron, 300 South Dora avenue, whose garden is also a beautiful one.

Excellent Program By Southern Belles

With the social hall of the Methodist church brightly decorated with spring blossoms, guests of the Youth Fellowship enjoyed the Southern Belle dinner and a variety program of music and comedy on Friday night, April 30.

With Chuck Perry at the piano and Hank de Lotty's drums, the program included popular and standard music. A quartette included Jean Coleman, George Wildberger, Don Millard and Jules Legier, who were accompanied by Vondalee Cyphers.

Soloists were Yvonne Lynn, Norman Wright and Bob York, with Vondalee Cyphers and Mary Kunzler as accompanists. Darrell Salisbury's comedy Good Night, Ladies, accompanied by George Wildberger, was also well received.

The evening was planned as a benefit for the Methodist young people's institute fund. Elaine Hiatt is president of the Youth Fellowship and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Salisbury and Bert Hinds are counsellors for the group.

Famous Harpist Presents Brilliant Sunday Concert

Local music lovers were given a rare experience on Sunday afternoon when Anna Louise David, nationally famous harpist, presented a program distinguished by its variety and range. Engene Corbett, tenor, presented the artist and added brilliantly to the program with four selections to harp accompaniment.

Mrs. David's engaging personality won her audience in the Saturday afternoon club from the moment she appeared, almost dwarfed by her magnificent harp, richly carved and gold embossed which was made for her in Chicago. Mrs. Alling Davis and Mrs. Cesira Delany were hostesses for the private concert which was attended by some 200 invited guests. They were assisted by Mrs. Frank Branson and Mrs. Clair Holliday.

Of the dozen numbers she played, Lake Louise written for her by Andre Kostelanetz, Russian composer, will probably be best remembered, not only for its dramatic color but because of the amusing story she told of the Russian composer who invited her to dinner at the Waldorf to celebrate its publication. He appeared in such extraordinary high spirits she felt almost overwhelmed with his celebration of the event until he revealed with Russian fervor it was not the music he was celebrating but the tremendous fact that he had become an American citizen.

Enchanted Forest, arranged by the harpist and the Die Meistersinger Prize Song by Wagner were two of her most brilliant numbers. With the Dolls Sleigh Ride, she told an amusing story of the tangled web she wove in the musical world by composing it for a Russian program and giving the name of the author as "Veranoff". By the time her publishers pinned her down to admitting its authorship she had had so many harpists delving into the identity of the non-existent Veranoff, she was relieved to tell all and let them ascribe it to an old Russian folk song, "arranged by A. L. D."

Le Follets,—Fireflies, by Hasselmans was notable for its delicacy; Brahms Waltzes for tonal beauty, and Chorale, in the manner of Handel, her own arrangement, was particularly effective on the harp.

Corbett's Program

In Corbett's group of songs, Clorinda was the choice of this listener, and Tosti's Mattinata, sung in Italian was excellent. The harp accompaniment was particularly effective in My Heart Is A Lute, by Woodman. Little Irish Girl was also well received, and Duna, by McGill.

Three attentive little girls in the front row were happy when Mrs. David dedicated to them a whimsical folk song of the orient as an encore. Karen Schilder, Patty Weber and Judy Foster had sat entranced through her program when she acknowledged their admiration with the charming number she called Po Ling and Ming Toy.

At the close of the program she received the audience at the stage and explained her instrument which, unlike the violin, does not improve with age. Hers is 14 years old and requires much attention for the 45 strings of metal and gut. She wore a formal frock of lavender lace in the same shade as the inlay on her instrument and some handsome amethyst jewelry emphasized the deeper purple tones in the carving.

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Delany poured at a handsomely decorated tea table set with silver and candles for the tea and coffee served with cake to the guests who lingered late into the afternoon discussing the splendid program and making the acquaintance of the artist.

Mrs. Hinds And Mrs. Simpson Honored At Stork Shower By Mothers Club

The attractive home of Mrs. Frank Crane in Cochrane Heights, was the setting Tuesday night for a double stork shower which complimented Mrs. Bert Hinds and Mrs. Jack Simpson. The occasion was the monthly meeting of the Mother's club and Mrs. Crane was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Edward Oden and Mrs. Albert Towne.

Mothers are finding the monthly lessons from Parents magazine valuable and Tuesday's lesson, given by Mrs. Burt Banzhaf, was particularly interesting on the theme that children will learn to use words with confidence and express themselves well if parents listen and respond intelligently to them; they learn by imitation and it is important to talk to them with distinctness and a good choice of words.

Another talk by Mrs. Louise Day from the book, Developing The Child's Personality, by Gelolo McQue, Ph.D., stressed the importance of developing good eating habits. Forcing the last spoonful of food on a child causes an emotional block which influences his attitude toward eating, she said.

Some fine roses were used in decorations with other flowers, and candles were lighted on the refreshment table where a buffet of dainty sandwiches, pickles, nuts, candy, coffee and tea were served.

Mrs. Hinds was presented a high chair and Mrs. Simpson received a taylor tot from the club. Mrs. Everett Swigart presided at the business meeting. Guests were Mrs. Don Zylstra, Mrs. Zella Waterhouse, Mrs. Arthur Miller, Mrs. Glen Miller and Mrs. Jack MacNab.

July 2, 3, 4, 5, will be red letter days at Fort Bragg.

★ Willits News Notes

WILLITS, May 1.—The Willits Fire Department Auxiliary held a special meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. Gertrude Zanella, April 29. The question was which five members would serve breakfast at 8 on May 28. This is the meal mentioned before from which KNBC is to broadcast news of the Frontier Days Celebration. As in all worthy projects, all wanted to help, consequently, the names of members were placed in a hat and names of five were drawn, then three alternates. Those to help are Mesdames Blanche Daskam, Dora Donaldson, Jesse Lawrason, Gertrude Zanella and Jewel Garret. Alternates are Elizabeth Krch, Thelma Haun and Evelyn Collier. A gab fest over coffee and cake rounded out the evening.

Sweetheart Contest

Nor have the firemen been idle. Last Wednesday night they held a special meeting, during which such subjects as the improvements made, and those that must be made to the rodeo grounds were discussed as was the Rodeo Sweetheart contest. Decisions made included still more work Sunday mornings, to which we might add, the general public is cordially invited, and the re-setting of the ages for girls eligible to participate in the sweetheart contest. Girls, if you have celebrated your 15th birthday but not your 22nd, and you are single and can ride a horse, let it be known and some organization will back you, or if you choose, you may run independently. It is still anyone's race, so come on gals, throw in your sombrero and start selling.

Police Department

If you have been scanning this column to see who the new member on the police force is, stop. Until proven that the force of four officers and chief is not sufficient to adequately cover the town there will be no new member.

The department was responsible for locating Mrs. Lucille Parsons, 24, who "eloped" from Imola hospital in Napa county on May 21, 1947. Working on a tip from a bus driver, officers followed the woman, questioned her and in checking her story found that things weren't quite as they should be. As a result, Mrs. Parsons was released to the custody of Napa hospital officials on April 28.

The police also picked up Frank Forehand for being drunk, after which Judge Allan Sacry fined him $15. Another name on the roster is that of Paul M. Cearly who faces a charge of drunk and vagrancy. Both were booked on April 29.

Mrs. Wallace Jay was honored by her friends at a no-host baby shower Wednesday afternoon. The welcome for little Jay-to-be was at the home of Mrs. Ray Hilderbrand where the table was set with appropriate cloth and two miniature plastic storks, each holding in its beak a wee bundle from heaven. Refreshments consisted of salads, cakes, and beverages. The unsuspecting honoree walked into a room full of guests and gifts. On the guest list were Mesdames Bill Lamprich and Diana, Chester Dunn and Janiece, Albert Arms and Stevie, Lloyd Watson, Donna and Elsie, Bill Hinton and Johnny, Ray Hilderbrand and Dianne, Roy Ray, Cecil Reitzel, Al Heavner, Ted Ford, Ed Lamprich, Bessie Wonacott, Elvin Ford, Don Cameron and Mrs. Jay's other three children, Mary Ellen, Wallace, Jr., and Michael. A warm welcome to little Jay, the fourth.

Another social evening was that of the Catholic Ladies card party. The affair drew approximately 115 people, to play bridge and whist or just look on and partake of refreshments of coffee and homemade cakes which were served on tables decorated in spring apple blossoms. A door prize of an 8-cup coffee maker was given and a seat prize of five gallons of gas. Numerous other prizes were also awarded and all felt that the committee of Mesdames Fred Collins, Jema Servanti, Pauline Petty, Martha Sullivan, Anet Kennedy and Anita Mangano had done a wonderful job.

Lions Without Den

Thursday night found the Lions routed from their den. The Willits Lions Club, which ordinarily meets at Andy's, found themselves in need of a meeting place on April 29 when Andy's was closed. During their meeting at El Rancho Meson, Lee Wise, Dick Beachtel and Harry Kister were complimented on the able way the Easter Egg hunt was carried out. Inasmuch as one batch of eggs was wasted, the whole affair cost the Lions in the vicinity of $150, but the pleased 400 kids at the high school auditorium made the monetary side of it seem less important.

Scout Activities

Monday night found the Boy Scout executives at a meeting in W.I.C. hall. During business portion of the meeting Ted Matson reported on the Willits scouts who participated in the Scout-o-Rama in Santa Rosa. Taking the scouts down were Mr. Matson and Dick Goldsbury. At the Scout-o-Rama, the Willits boys saw all phases of scouting demonstrated and took an active part in the pack hike. At the close of the confab, the boys visited the ranch of W. F. Bundesen ,Mr. Matson's uncle, near Santa Rosa. There the boys slept out and cooked their own meals over a campfire. Sunday they took a 5-mile hike to the top of Mt. Taylor where they could look into the Valley of the Moon and see Santa Rosa and Petaluma. Their last stop before home was to swim in the Russian river. Don't tell any of the following boys scouting isn't fun: Francis Lowerdt, Allen Malsbury, Billy Pippin, Elwood and Glenwood Wagner, Carl and Billy Moore, Donald Ross and David Breen.

Seven Willits cub scouts also participated in the Scout-o-Rama. They were Indians in Custer's Last Stand. This fact, along with entertainment and future plans, was mentioned last Tuesday evening when they had a pack meeting. Plans for next month include a picnic to be held jointly with the Laytonville pack, tentatively on May 23. It will be held at Longvale in lieu of their pack meeting for May. Inasmuch as their project for this month is Indian Craft, they will display the fruits of their labors at the picnic. Entertainment was the presentation of legendary figures by each den. Den 1, Erma Hinton den mother, presented Billy Horger as Paul Bunyan; Den 2 chose Black Bart as their figure, but Bart rode by so fast we were unable to get his name. The name of the den mother is Peggy Crocker. Johnny Appleseed was portrayed by Donald Kenney of Mary Page's Den 3. Paul Revere, Dora Donaldson's den, was too rushed to give anything more than the historic message, while Melvin Lee Butcher did a Paul Bunyan theme for Den 5, under Marie Van Cleemput. All witnessing the cubs at work agreed they did a fine job.

After the regular meeting of the Eastern Star, at which Worthy Matron Thelma Sawyers and Worthy Patron Bob Camp presided, the Job's Daughters Bethel exemplified part of their work. In appreciation of the invitation the young ladies presented Miss Sawyers with a hand-wrought aluminum candy dish. The work of the Daughters was a pleasant surprise to the members attending, but the dish was a surprise to Miss Sawyers, while the entertainment held afterward was a surprise even to those who issued the invitations. The girls had a vivifying program lined up in which Carol Robinson did a pantomime of Bubble Gum; June Page a reading of Patches for Pete; a recitation by Jane Holloway, song by Evelyn Heckendorf, and a monologue by Jeanne Donaldson. Their honored queen, Barbara Couey, could justifiably be proud of them all. Dessert ended the evening.

Strictly Personal Department

Mrs. Merle Snow of Sausalito spent last weekend in Willits visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Ericson. Her visit was twofold, to visit, and to help Mrs. Ericson celebrate her recent birthday.

Larry Moore, former chief of Willits police, has made known his plans for the future. He may hereafter be found on George Stemple's Willowbrook ranch on Sherwood road.

Mr and Mrs. Ralph Elliott braved the fabulous Fort Bragg road last week to visit with Ralph's parents, the C. G. Elliotts on Redwood avenue.

The Frank Brewer family, their young daughter having finished recuperating, are all safely back in Sitka, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moreno, tiring of labor at John's Place, are vacationing south. Last word had the couple in Mexico. Como esta, Udes?

Mrs. Annie Babcock, Dr. Babcock's mother, who has been confined in the Howard Memorial Hospital, is listed as about the same.

Bob Camp was a visitor to the Friendship Chapter, O.E.S., in San Francisco on April 27. While there he witnessed work of the order performed against a chapter room decorated in exact replica of the days of '49. After the meeting the 350 present were fed flapjacks and maple syrup.

April 27 Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beggs and Mrs. Bette I. Duncan motored into Lake county to see the famed redbuds and spend the day with Mrs. Duncan's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Westlake. After looking over the Westlake ranch near Finley and enjoying a hearty noonday lunch, they drove around the lake to Lucerne where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. LeClair.

Mesdames Lee Heyeman and Bobbie Specht drove to San Francisco April 29, to see the latest the shops had to offer.

Mrs. Irene Branscomb and Miss Thelma Sawyers were in Eureka on the 16th where they viewed the balloting and initiation work of the Eureka chapter of Eastern Star, and while there attended the installation of the White Shrine. Mrs. Branscomb is a member of the Eureka lodge.

William Vlach is home from the P.G.&E. office with the mumps. Won't you ever grow up, Bill?

Elementary Measles

Measles have invaded the classrooms in Willits elementary school. Parents are warned by school authorities not to treat the disease lightly, as complications may affect ears, chest, heart and kidneys. If in doubt, keep your child home and when symptoms appear, call your doctor. Don't, under any circumstances, send junior to the theater because he is recuperating and always underfoot. Rather keep him underfoot than risk spreading the disease to others. We don't want an epidemic.

Mrs. Willie Smith received a letter from Ruth Soulliere, who is in Bogata, affirming the state department's recent communique that she is safe.

Joseph Coletti of San Francisco walked across the path a bullet was taking near Dos Rios and the travel of both Coletti and the bullet was interrupted. Both were taken to Willits where they parted company, thanks to Dr. Babcock's surgery. That was the last heard of the bullet, but Coletti's condition is classified as good. That will be a lesson not to walk across anyone's gunfire during a target practice.

Robert Tanem, Willits high school junior, competed in the semi-finals of the Knights of Pythias public speaking contest held on April 24 in Lakeport. Unfortunately for Bob and Willits, a young lady from Ferndale convinced the judges of The Debt of the Modern World to Ancient Greece more expressively than he or any others competing.

The Gagen court was artistically decorated with natural greens, wild flowers and lilacs on April 27. It was against this background that Alena Older, niece of Mrs. Gagen, exchanged wedding vows with Raymond McGuely. The bride wore a becoming yellow dinner dress touched off with a corsage of white carnations. Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. William Haggerty while Mrs. Gagen served as matron of honor and Edward Shay of San Francisco was best man. Bride and groom are from San Francisco, where Alena is an insurance broker and Ray, a salesman. Guests Ralph Bland, Mesdames Ray Beal, Wililam aHggerty, Edith Rich and Mrs. Anderson partook of light sandwiches, cake and coffee after congratulating the newlyweds.

May their marriage last as long as that of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Walker of Willits who recently celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walker staged a celebration honoring the occasion at the Ray Walker home. Setting off a heavily laden table were pansies, stocks and lilacs placed at advantageous points. On the menu was southern baked ham, frozen fruit salad, traditional white cake, ice cream and coffee. With food like that it was well that there was enough for seconds and thirds. Up for the day from Ukiah were Mr. and Mrs. George Azbill and Mrs. John Ericksen and daughter. Willits guests included the host and hostess, the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vinton and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robinson. Visiting and well-wishing rounded out the evening.

At a recent meeting of the Canteen Coordinating council new officers elected were Jack Cress, American Legion representative, chairman; Mrs. George Petersen, Willits Women's Improvement Club, recording secretary; Mrs. Earl H. Maize, Jr., Young Women's Guild of the Methodist church, corresponding secretary; Jack Williams of the Lions club, treasurer. The group agreed to continue to meet and hold the canteen open while working toward establishment of a city-wide recreational program.

Another organization that recently held election of officers was the Farm Bureau ladies and last week had their installation. The ingoing and retiring officers were identified by the corsages presented by the club. Sarah Secrist, outgoing chairman, was also presented with a material reminder of her tenure in office. Those to serve for the coming year are Mrs. Littlefield, chairman; Mrs. Mary Page, vice-chairman; Mrs. Vera Whittaker, secretary, and Mrs. Martha Safford, treasurer. Prior to the business meeting and installation, all members were treated to a delectable luncheon and after the meeting to a fashion show. It was quite a unique fashion show, inasmuch as instead of the usual feminine finery the models paraded the Red Cross robes which the ladies have been making. They still need help, experienced or inexperienced, just so that you are willing.

Of special interest to members and guests of the W.I.C.: Do you have a legendary white elephant in your home? Some odd vase or doo-dad that is too good to throw away but just doesn't seem to fit in your color scheme? If so, bring it to the Veterans' Memorial building on May 7, at 2:15, put it up for sale, or exchange it for one that will match and the W.I.C. treasury will benefit. For further details, see Mrs. George Peterson. Scheduled for the same date is the election of new officers, so do attend. Mesdames Darrold Page, O. H. Roediger, M. E. Lambert, Rose Steele, Joseph Harrah and A. R. McEwen will be hostesses.

Although American Legion District 1 has been lauded for going over the top in membership, special notice should be made that our post, Willits 174, has topped their own 1948 quota. Good going, fellows!

It may be May by the calendar but somebody must have set it ahead, judging from the storms, rain, and hail, and snow! Storms cause discomforts, but when you get wet, all you have to do is get dry. The moisture washes out the fillin' on the Main street and the chuck holes are back, and like the grow and grow." By summer if they keep on getting larger, the citizens of Willits won't have to worry about a scarcity of swimmin' holes; just about life guards and amphibicars.

Rotary Charter Night

Although no date has been set, it is definite that some time in May the Rotary Club of Willits will hold its Charter night and as Rotarians from all clubs in District 104 are expected for the occasion, it is bound to be a bang-up affair, with high etheical standards, of course.

Sgt. Andrew D. Curtin, USMCR of Willits has been appointed honorary recruiting sergeant for the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve. His appointment will embrace the district of Mendocino, Lake and Humboldt counties. His duties will be to assist Lieut. John W. Burkard, U.S.M.C.R., V.R.O. of the 12th Marine Reserve District headquarters in San Francisco, in interesting young men and enlisting them in the marine corps reserve. Sgt. Curtin is well qualified to give anyone an insight on what life in the Corps is like, having served for three years in the South Pacific theatre during the recent war.

If you are interested in the leatherneck corps, see Sgt. Curtin, either at 23 Marin or at his home on North street.

Another local boy seen wearing a uniform again is Donovan Rupe, rather Corporal Donovan Rupe, U.S.A. He is home on an 8-day leave from Fairfield where he has been attending Intelligence school. This is the second time he has donned the olive drab, the first time being during the recent war when he spent 45 months overseas with the U.S. Army Air Forces and was shot down once over the channel and severely injured. Regardless, he is back in uniform and soon to leave for Switzerland. Good luck, doggie.

Willits continues to grow, both in population and dwellings. Two new homes are to be built in the near future, as building permits were granted to Don Frey, $4760, and Roy Ray, $4000, this week.

COVELO NEWS

COVELO, May 1.—Funeral services for Rush Anderson were held Friday afternoon, April 23, at 2 p.m. from the Federated church. Rev. Ernest B. Carey was in charge with Rev. Ernest B. DeFord assisting. The music was furnished by Mrs. Myrtle Rohrbough, Mrs. Charles Lovell, Rev. Mrs. Alfor, Eunice Jamieson, Sam Gray, Henry Gerrans, Hally Gerrans, Charles Gray, with Mrs. Fannie English at the piano. The songs, Sometime We Will Understand, In the Garden and Rock of Ages, were beautifully sung.

Rush Morgan Anderson was born in Belaire, Ohio, March 23, 1864, and passed away April 21, 1948, at his home in Covelo at the age of 84 years and 29 days.

Mr. Anderson came to Round valley in September, 1907, where he engaged in farming and carpentry until his retirement in 1942. He was married June 11, 1923, to Sadie Rokes McMurray of Garnett, Kansas, his boyhood sweetheart, who was with him to the last, doing all possible for his comfort.

Mr. Anderson was supposed to be the oldest white man in Round valley. He was a lifelong Presbyterian and came to the end of the way with a firm faith in God whom he constantly trusted. His patience and thoughtfulness for others will remain a precious memory to those who knew and loved him.

He leaves to mourn his departure his beloved wife, an aged sister, Mrs. Lucy E. Fuqua of Whitewater, Kansas, the only survivor of a family of seven; a nephew, Harold C. Anderson of Oakland, and a niece, Alta Anderson Fields of Sacramento, and many nephews and nieces in the middle west, also the relatives of Mrs. Anderson, all of whom loved him as an own uncle. He will be greatly missed by many friends in Covelo and elsewhere.

Rush was laid to rest in the Masonic Cemetery in Round valley. Active pallbearers were John Brightenstine, Elmer Bauer, Elwin Gerrans, James Walter, Carl Kruger and Marion Terry. Honorary pallbearers: G. M. Biggar, E. A. Gravier, J. L. Dunlop and O. H. Sitterle.

Mrs. Crumrine returned from Richmond, where she has spent about 30 days due to the illness of her brother, J. C. Hamilton.

Mrs. Enid Breese spent about 30 days in San Francisco taking care of her mother who had fallen and broken her leg. While there Eloise attended school every day.

Mrs. Blanche Dorman and Mrs. Ryan took Robert Whipple to the hospital in Santa Rosa. We hope that they will be able to find out what Robert's ailment is. He has been sick for a long time.

Cupid has really been running wild in Covelo of late. Arnett Brush and Ruth Yatts Gray took the big plunge. Ruth was a childhood sweetheart and we wish them great happiness in their new venture.

Elvin Shipley of Vallejo and Hazel Hart were united in holy wedlock about March 25. Congratulations, Hazel and Elvin.

John Crone and Rhoda Gray were married in Hopland. A charivari party was given by Mabel Brown in her home Saturday night.

The ladies of the sewing circle of the Methodist Mission put on a big birthday dinner in honor of Blanche Dorman, and a shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McLain Tuesday afternoon, April 27. A good crowd enjoyed the dinner and many presents were received by the bride and groom. The ladies were very sorry that Blanche was unable to attend the dinner given in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris have sold their home in Covelo to James Cuffe of Belmont. Mr. Cuffe and wife expect to make some changes about the place and move up later in the year. They expect to raise specialty crops.

Jimmy Whipple left for San Francisco Thursday to join Uncle Sam's navy. The community gave him a farewell party Wednesday night, where many of his friends were in attendance to enjoy games, a good supper and later Fillmore DeFord gave a showing of his beautiful colored slides of Alaska and points of interest in California.

STATE WILL TAKE CLEONE FOR PARK

For years the Fort Bragg Chamber of Commerce has been working for acquisition by state of certain sites along the Mendocino coast. Park Commissioner Charles Kasch of Ukiah has been working with the chamber and on Monday of this week reported that the state will take the Cleone Beach and park into the state system, says a report from the coast. The match moneys have been deposited and the division of parks and beaches have voted to acquire the property.

By acquiring the Cleone property, the state has started acting on the county's master plan for beaches. Ocean frontage and beaches from Pudding creek to Sea Side beach make up the first priority, and the property will be acquired by the state as soon as match moneys are put up.

Two years ago the park commission allocated $125,000 for the purchase of beaches in Mendocino county. Under the law these funds must be matched either in money or in land from sources other than the state. According to Mr. Kasch, the report says, it is the plan to purchase property north and south of Cleone as matching funds become available.

A plan has been advanced by Mr. Kasch whereby the state can acquire the Pudding creek beach without having to wait several years to do so. The City of Fort Bragg, or other interests, could advance the match money for that one project, and it could be put into the state system. According to a communication from Mr. Kasch to the Fort Bragg Chamber of Commerce, the commission has agreed to purchase the Pudding Creek beach immediately, or as soon as match moneys are put up. The state would then turn the beach back to the city on a 25-year lease.

County Hospital Plans Approved

Chairman Ed Hachl and Supervisor Richard Redmond from Sacramento report Tuesday that the state has allocated $[illegible] to endorse the master plan for the county hospital and build that portion which necessity calls for and make the additions as the money becomes available.

Charles Wollenberg, head of the state welfare department, advised Chairman Hachl to make his application at once for federal funds and to proceed with the hospital plans, and that he would visit Ukiah during the summer and go over the matter with them.

Wollenberg, it is said, recommended that some arrangement be made for the care of tubercular patients until some future time, when conditions and the number of patients demand a special ward in the county hospital. The present number of cases of tuberculosis in the county does not justify the expenditure, it is claimed.

V.F.W. CAMP AT FT. BRAGG

Fort Bragg will ring to the shouts of "Hi, Buddy" during this next weekend. Paul Bunyan Post of Fort Bragg will play host to the twenty or so posts comprising the Sixteenth District of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Rotarians Payoff Was Gala Affair

It was Navy Night at Laurel Dell last Friday evening with Admiral Frank Wilson's crew of the good ship Rotary the guests of honor at a banquet bought and paid for by Commander Dick Mazzoni's army division.

It was payoff night for the losing side of the Rotary Club's attendance contest of last February and March, between Admiral Wilson's navy and Commander Mazzoni's army, and the navy took 'em.

There were 88 brave men and fair ladies who dined on a special fried chicken dinner with all the excellent accessories provided at Laurel Dell, and afterwards those who wanted to dance found accommodations in the club room, or otherwise found amusement to make a full evening. President Don Ward made a speech and Judge Lilburn Gibson told a story.

Sharing honors with Admiral Wilson was Commander Karl Hengeveld and Ensign Ralph Wright, while Commander Mazzoni's army lost with the aid of Lieutenants Bob Withrow and Vernon Davis.

The board of supervisors granted permission to Victor Hosea to install vending machines in the courthouse.

Palace Tourney In Second Round

Second round pairings in the Palace Hotel spring handicap tournament were announced today by Bob Clark, municipal golf pro, after the completion of the first round of play Sunday.

Upper bracket winners included E. Banker, G. O. Walden, Dr. James Massengill and P. Mathews. In the lower bracket, the winning golfers were Bunt Cox, Dr. Taylor, Jack Clarke and W. W. Seely. (Seely's win was by default, when Ed Davis failed to show.)

Winners were paired as follows:

Upper bracket—Banker vs. G. O. Walden; Dr. Massengill vs. Mathews.

Lower bracket — Bunt Cox vs. Dr. Taylor; Jack Clarke vs. W. W. Seely.

Clarke has scheduled a consolation tourney for the losers next Sunday, with the pairings as follows: H. D. Roberts vs. Joe Weber; Pat McGuire vs. Dr. Barr; Ira Whitton vs. Irv Brazier; Craig Bosworth vs. Ed Davis.

All matches in the second round, including the consolation events, will be well worth seeing. The ladies' qualifying round for the Richfield trophy originally scheduled for Tuesday has been extended to include the date from May 4 until May 9, Clark said. Women wishing to compete in the Richfield trophy event can qualify on any of these five days.

McMurphy Funeral Held On Thursday

Fnueral services for David T. McMurphy were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Elbert Holland officiating at the Lance & Zimemrman Ukiah chapel and the Boonville Odd Fellows conducting the committal rites at the Ukiah Cemetery.

Mr. McMurphy died Sunday morning at his home on the Fred Rawles ranch in Anderson valley. He was born March 16, 1873, near Raleigh, Illinois, and was a member of the first graduating class of the Mendocino high school. In 1895 he obtained a teacher's certificate, but never taught. He worked as storekeeper, timekeeper and scaled logs for Al Johnson near the headwaters of Big river during the old bull team days.

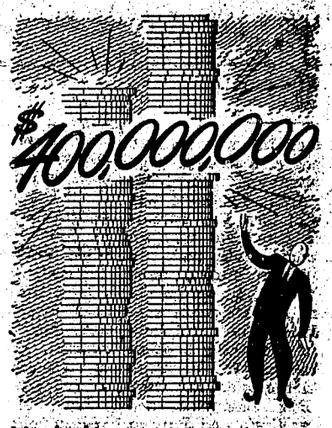
He was wed with Ruby Allenby and of their two children, James died at the age of 14 years. Their daughter Jessie is the wife of Wendel Tooley of Los Gatos. He followed various occupations to the time of his retirement in 1936. He was the brother of George McMurphy of Vallejo, a former Ukiahan, whose son Herbert owns the Bay Terrace Yacht Harbor at Vallejo.

Quick picture of America's biggest power-building program

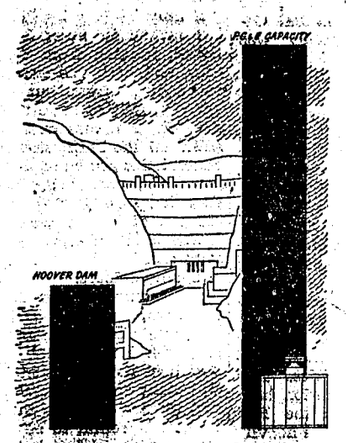
In three and a half short years... between now and the end of 1951... P.G. and E. will add nearly two million horsepower in generating capacity. To help you understand how big this program really is, here are some comparisons.

More power than was needed to meet all the pre-war requirements of Northern and Central California will be added.

The program is creating jobs for thousands of men. The estimated peak work force will exceed 6,000.



It's the biggest program of any electrical utility in America today, costing more than $400,000,000. It is now proceeding at more than $10,000,000 a month.



Added to previous totals, the new power will give P. G. and E. a generating capacity about three times that of Hoover Dam.

Or 8 times greater than Shasta Dam. This program, now in its third year, is going full speed ahead!

New Plant Schedule

It takes time to build power plants...more than three years to build a steam generating plant. Like everyone, we were delayed by wartime restrictions and postwar building problems. Some of the orders for equipment have been held up many months. But, we're making steady progress now. Here's a schedule of major new plants and completion dates, which will be met unless there are further unforeseen delays.

PLANT	CAPACITY	COMPLETION DATE
Kern Steam—First Unit	101,000 horsepower	Spring 1948
Electra Hydro	133,000 "	Summer 1948
Station "P" Steam	298,000 "	Winter 1948
West Point Hydro	21,000 "	Winter 1948
Colgate Hydro	40,000 "	Summer 1949
Cresta Hydro	101,000 "	Winter 1949
Kern Steam—Second Unit	134,000 "	Spring 1950
Rock Creek Hydro	169,000 "	Summer 1950
One Steam Unit	150,000 "	Summer 1950
Five Steam Units	150,000 " each	Year 1951

Work never stops on our power-building program

Anderson Valley News

PHILO, May 5.—Visiting the Santa Rosa Rebekah lodge Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. George Matheson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, and Mesdames Phil Clark, Veryl Baxter, Cecil Gowan and James Hotell. They reported an interesting meeting, an initiation which was formal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pinoli and family and Miss Thelma Solatino were Ukiah visitors last week.

Trout fishing opened in the valley May 1 with many fishermen from out of this area here to try their luck. The weather was so unsettled and streams so high that the luck was not as good as it will be in a few weeks. Ray's resort opened May 1 with 31 guests, some of them to try their luck at fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Ray are being assisted this summer by Margaret Albrecht and Joyce Winn.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Austin and son, Jimmy Lee were valley visitors Sunday.

Here for the funeral services of Rudolph Eton were his nieces and families, Mr. and Mrs. Witherell of Vallejo, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Witherell of Sebastopol and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eckman of Santa Rosa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gowan had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Champlain of Vallejo. The Champlains were enroute to Russian Gulch for a vacation and then to Merced where they will visit.

Sunday Mrs. George Gowan and son George motored to Point Arena to visit her sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tock and Mrs. Herman Tock of Gualala. While there she visited Mrs. Leonard Craig of Point Arena.

Don Van Zandt came home from the hospital Monday. He has been in the Mare Island hospital having a series of typhoid shots and a general check up, and everyone was glad to see him.

Friends and relatives gathered Sunday to wish happy birthday to Oliver Morre and Clarence Blattner of the Indian Creek mill at Philo. A potluck dinner was served and games and visiting enjoyed. Gifts of handkerchiefs were opened by the two guests of honor. The hostess was Mrs. Clarence Blattner.

A regular meeting of the Grange will be Saturday night, May 8, at 9 o'clock. The later hour has been set as daylight saving time makes 8 o'clock very early for the ranchers to attend.

The Unity Club will hold its monthly meeting Saturday afternoon, May 8, at the clubhouse. There will be a potluck dinner and plant exchange. Members and guests are reminded that they are to bring a plant to exchange with some other member. The business meeting will be followed by a tour of Mrs. Louise Edwards' garden, which is noted for its spring flowers. Hostesses for the garden party are Louise Edwards, Alice Gowan, Lola Hulbert and Elysse Perkins. Hostesses for the afternoon are Elinor Clow, Erma Turner, Mattie Wallach, Elizabeth Gowan, Mary Rigden, Thelma Collins and Velma Farrer.

Rudolph Jefferson Eton

Services were held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock for Rudolph Jefferson Eton, who passed away at his home on April 29. The Eversole Mortuary was in charge with Rev. Gibson of Boonville as pastor. Beautiful floral pieces and spring flowers bore testimony of the estimony in which Rudolph Eton was held. The Boonville church was packed with friends who came to pay their last respects. Following the services, cremtaion took place at the Chapel of the Chimes in Santa Rosa.

Rudolph Jefferson Eton was born in Sacramento, December 29, 1877. He was the oldest of a family of six children, born to Rudolph and Agatha Eton. In 1887 the family moved to Anderson valley which has been Rudolph's home ever since. His parents and two brothers, Albert and Steve, had gone on before him. Members of his immediate family left to mourn his loss are his three sisters, Mrs. Louise Peterson, Mrs. Olive Dutro and Mrs. Ella Farrer, all of Philo; two nephews, three nieces, two grandnieces and three grandnephews.

Rudolph's active life was spent in self-sacrificing service to others. From the age of 12 he filled a man's place in his world, as woodsman, mine worker, surveyor and farmer. He won the title he valued: that of a good worker and an honest man. Later he added that of a true Christian and for many years held an active part in the church. At the time of his passing he was a trustee on the church board.

It was his wish that only the truth be spoken of him at his passing. Therefore may it be said of him that he followed closely in the steps of his Master. In spite of all obstacles he fought a good fight and won a glorious victory.

Waiting In The Mud . . .

MUDDY AND DISPIRITED, this is one of the inmates of the city dog pound which the Ukiah Humane Society seeks to improve by calling attention to unnecessary neglect of stray animals impounded by the city.

Conditions Of City Dog Pound Called Disgraceful By Ukiah Humane Society

This is Kindness To Animals Week—and out at the city pound there are five wretched mongrels who can use some kindness. Advised by Mrs. Louise A. Bernhard, secretary of the Ukiah Humane Society that her organization is attempting to have conditions at the pound improved, a Redwood Journal reporter and photographer visited the pound Friday.

The city, they were told, provides no food for the stray dogs shut into small pens foul with mud and refuse. The dogs gnaw the wooden slats of their enclosure. The owner of the tallow works on Low Gap road wishes something could be done about it. Sometimes he butchers animals for tallow and feeds them the refuse, he said. Sometimes Mrs. Bernhard brings out dog biscuits provided by the Humane Society. At other times they go hungry and he is not permitted to destroy them without a written order from the city poundmaster, Meredith Duncan. It's pretty bad, he said.

Pets Go There

One dog, a cringing, emaciated creature whom no one wants, has been there for two months. The others from three to six days. The cherished pet of any taxpayer, picked up by the poundmaster for identification would have to share their revolting quarters.

The Humane Society has appeared before the city council in the past and attempted to have conditions improved, but nothing has come of their efforts, George Vevoda, president, said today. Duncan occasionally takes out food for the animals but it is not done regularly and the pens are not kept clean, he said. With the support of interested citizens he believes the council can be roused to improve the situation.

While the local Kindness To Animals campaign centers around the city pound, the observation of the week nationally is directed toward Animals in the Service of Mankind. Humane Society posters put out by the national society emphasize this theme.

Underprivileged Ones

"Once a year," Mrs. Bernhard said, "men, women and children throughout the world, who are animal lovers, hesitate in the mad scramble to live, and take thought for the welfare of all living dumb animals. The strays, the unwanted pets and those left behind when their owners move away, are the underprivileged members of animaldom.

"While their suffering may seem trivial compared to the wretchedness of hungry people in foreign countries, it is not trivial to demand the end of needless cruelty and neglect."

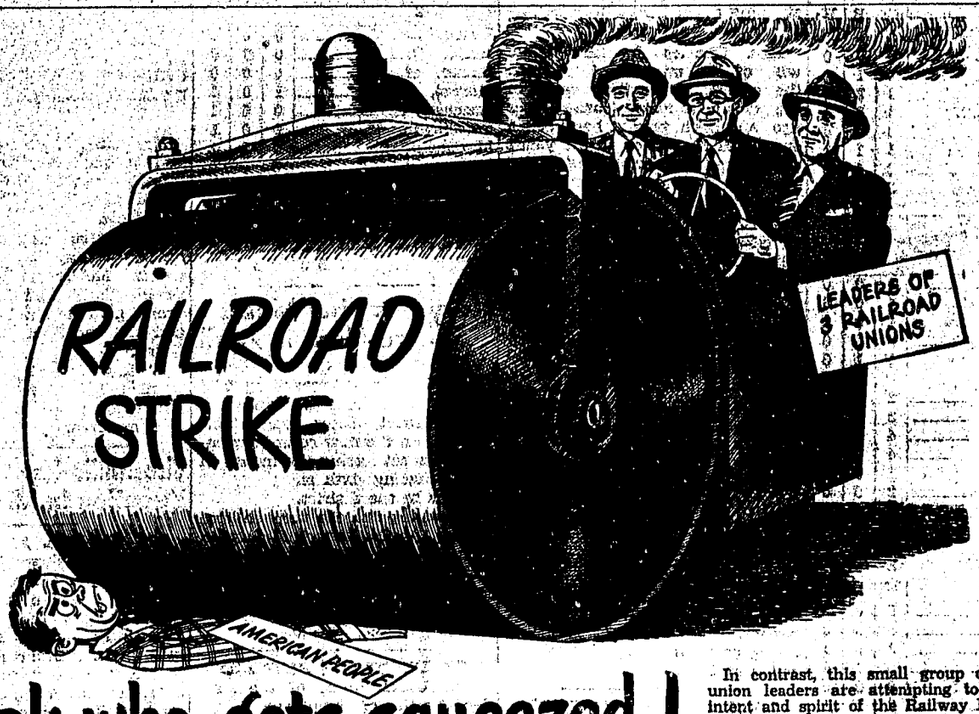
MOVE TO NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Learnard and their daughter Sharon moved Saturday to the home they purchased from Mrs. Frank Comino at 765 South Oak street. They have been living in the rear of their Hobby Shop on Standley street while they remodelled their new home.



Look who gets squeezed!

Union leaders representing less than one-tenth of railroad employes reject recommendations of President's Emergency board—refuse to negotiate except on their own terms—threaten to paralyze nation by strike!

THE LEADERS of three railroad unions, representing less than one-tenth of all railroad employees, have called a railroad strike that would paralyze the nation.

These leaders refuse to accept a 15½ cents an hour wage increase retroactive to November 1, 1947. This increase was recommended by an impartial Emergency Board appointed by President Truman.

This increase of 15½ cents already has been accepted by the 19 other railroad unions. But the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Switchmen's Union of North America won't accept what more than 90% of all railroad employes have accepted. They have called a strike to get more!

Unions refuse rules discussion

Certain rules changes demanded by these union leaders—which would increase wages still further—were recommended by the Board. But the union leaders want more—they demand that the railroads put into effect ALL the changes they asked for, including those the Board felt should be denied.

On top of this, they insist that certain rules changes proposed by the railroads be withdrawn—in spite of the fact that the Board recommended them! These union leaders have refused to negotiate except upon these arbitrary terms.

Greater wage increase not justified

Engineers and firemen are among the highest paid of all employes in America, as figures in the box show. This strike threat doesn't justify giving a greater increase than other railroad workers received.

Emergency Boards are a means provided by the Railway Labor Act in the public interest to avoid strikes. The President's Board, after hearing evidence for 33 days, made recommendations based on all the facts in the case. The railroads have accepted these recommendations.

Who's to blame?

Although they deplored so large an extra cost burden, the railroads accepted the report of the Board because they felt it was in the public interest to uphold the spirit and intent of the Railway Labor Act.

In contrast, this small group of railroad union leaders are attempting to flout the intent and spirit of the Railway Labor Act, and dictate their own terms.

They have dictated a paralyzing railroad strike.

You will be the victim.

How long will the American public stand for the undemocratic, arbitrary, and abusive use of the right to strike and the disregard of the obligation to provide transportation? How long can the American people permit a few dictatorial union leaders to defy the processes provided for peaceful settlement of disputes?

Force seldom produces settlements that are either fair or lasting. Moreover, a point is often reached when personal interests must be held subordinate to the greater public welfare. That is why the railroads have accepted the Emergency Board recommendations. That is also why the leaders of these three unions should reconsider their decision to call a paralyzing strike.

Compare these wages with what you make!

Here is a comparison of average annual earnings of engineers and fireman for 1939 (pre-war) and 1947. Also shown is what 1947 earnings would have been if the 15½ cents per hour increase, offered by the railroads and rejected by the union leaders, had been in effect throughout the entire year 1947.

Sluggers Split With El Cerrito

Foggy Ottosen's Talmage Sluggers lost their first contest of the season Saturday when they dropped a 6 to 2 decision to the El Cerrito Merchants, only to come roaring back with a 12 to 5 Sunday win.

In the Saturday tussel, both squads entered the first of the seventh frame scoreless. Muzzi led off with a walk for the visitors, followed by Figono's three-bagger. Valencia was hit by a pitched ball and an error advanced him to second. Valencia went to third on a fielder's choice, scoring later on a squeeze play after both Muzzi and Figone had counted their runs.

In the eighth, Furman led off with a circuit clout, Muzzi nailed a 2-base hit, Figone drew a base on balls, McMornna reached first on an error and Valencia singled, scoring Muzzi and Figone.

The Sluggers' turn came in the last half of the ninth when Don Meyers led off with a single and was out at second on a fielder's choice. Spencer reached first safely with Harding scoring and Mosna connected with a double, scoring Meyers.

Dolan, on the hill for the visitors, pitched sterling ball, striking out three batters consecutively at one point, with men on second and third. The El Cerrito pitcher allowed only five hits.

For the Sluggers, Baird turned in a flawless job for the first six innings, only to have his record marred by Figone's 3-bagger in the seventh. Things fell apart in the eighth when the El Cerrito heavy guns pummeled him for three more hits, including a home run. Openshaw took over the pitching labors in the final frame without allowing a hit. Playing a loose brand of ball, the Sluggers failed to get their hits when they needed them.

But the Talmage nine showed a return to their earlier gloss by polishing off the Merchants in the Sunday event 12 to 5. El Cerrito pushed over the first run in the opening inning, only to have the Sluggers retaliate with 5 counters. The remaining runs for the visitors were 1 in the third, 1 in the fourth and 2 in the eighth.

For the Sluggers the story was 1 in the fourth and 6 in the eighth. Severi and Openshaw toiled on the mound for the Sluggers, with Valencia and Ellis working for El Cerrito.

5 Children Baptized In Sunday Ceremony

Five children were baptized by Dr. Richard A. Van der Las in the Presbyterian church Sunday, in rites he makes memorable with his kindly love of children. The three little folks of Mr. and Mrs. Thorne Fravel of the airport, Anna Thoreen, Ralph Powers and John William were among them.

Phyllis Lee and David Paul, children of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Martin were also baptized. Mrs. Fravel and the Martins were accepted into church fellowship by Dr. Van der Las just after the baptismal service.

Farmers Take Time To Study Rural Fire Dist.

A lively interest in the proposed rural fire district was shown by the number of property owners of the district who attended the Friday night meeting at the Ukiah fire house, overflowing the assembly room.

Because there are two different setups under which a rural fire district, such as has been proposed for this section, can be organized the promised petitions had not been prepared and a committee was named during the evening to consult with District Attorney James E. Busch as to the requirements of the two plans and this committee will report to the next meeting, to be held in two weeks — May 14, unless a different date is announced.

The committee is composed of Edith Beck, chairman, Alex Thomas, Lou Hildreth, Adolph Parducci and Louis Johnson.

Cy Ross of San Francisco, representing the fire underwriters, discussed at some length the organization of rural fire districts. He said he had made a trip over the territory that was to be included within the district and had found that with the northern limits at the Forks and the southern end in the vicinity of Burke hill, and including the width of the valley, that fire apparatus at Ukiah, answering some calls would have to travel more than four miles, which appears to be the maximum distance a truck should be required to travel in answering a call.

Mr. Ross rather favored extending the limits to include Hopland on the south and Calpella on the north and placing a fire-fighting apparatus at Hopland, Ukiah and Calpella. This extension could also include Redwood Valley where they have had an efficient fire fighting organization for a number of years, although a purely volunteer arrangement with equipment purchased by popular subscription.

Banquet To Be Held In Methodist Church

Third annual Mother-Daughter banquet of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held on Friday night in the church social hall, wtih other church organizations assisting to make the annual Mother's Day affair the same outstanding event it has been in former years.

Mrs. Charles A. Lindemann, wife of the minister, introduced the custom when they came to the Ukiah ministry three years ago, and each year it has been a successful conclusion to the year's church activities preceding spring vacation. Last year covers were laid for 200 people.

Miss Grace Toles will be master of ceremonies to introduce Miss Alice Goudge who will give the toast to mothers. Mrs. May Beckley will offer the toast to daughters. Mrs. Lindemann and Mrs. Henry Frohn, president of W.S.C.S. are program chairmen, and are planning an evening of excellent entertainment.

The banquet will be a contributed covered dish supper served by the Senior Youth Fellowship with T. J. (Jack) Goudge and Robert Archibold in charge. Mrs. Goudge and Mrs. Ernest Balyeat are chairmen of the refreshment committee.

They have asked that those planning to attend, telephone to either of them for their reservations and give the number in their parties. Mrs. Goudge's phone is 348-R and Mrs. Balyeat may be called at 1117.

Wildcats Win At Cloverdale

Ukiah Runners Spoil No-hitter For Cloverdale

Ukiah high school's Wildcats came through with one for the books Tuesday in a 2 to 1 win over Cloverdale on the southern diamond. The Cats achieved their victory despite the no-hit performance of Tile and Silva on the mound for Cloverdale. Ukiah's Gordon Hanson also turned in a flossy game, allowing only two scratch hits and never encountering serious trouble at any point along the route.

It was the second victory for the Cats in their 2-game series with Cloverdale. The locals scored one run in the sixth and one in the final seventh frame.

After the Cats had drawn first blood, Cloverdale came right back with a run in the last of the sixth frame tying the score. Ukiah began to display winning potentials when Bill Scagliotti drew a base on balls in the first half of the seventh and went to second on a perfect bunt by Jimmy Busch, Ukiah shortstop. Scagliotti then stole third, scoring on Byron Hefte's long fly to center field. Bob Moroni scored the other Wildcat run.

In spite of their no-hit pitching, Tile and Silva, moundsmen for Cloverdale, encountered real difficulty on various occasions as a consequence of issuing bases on balls.

School Principals Are Speakers On Education At Lions Club Meeting

Lions Club members had a chance to compare the old McGuffey Reader with the latest in modern school text books when two local education officials were speakers at their regular Thursday luncheon. Frank Zeek, principal of the elementary school and W. A. Chessell, high school principal, were the speakers who analyzed and defended modern education. They were introduced by James Busch, program chairman.

Zeek feels that students will gain more from reading if the content of what they read is stressed above the mechanical process of reading. He illustrated his talk with copies of the McGuffey readers of the past and modern school books with colored illustrations which help to associate ideas with pictures.

He also discussed with approval the $225,000 school bond election which would provide a new elementary school on the proposed site on South Dora street.

Defends New Methods

Chessell defended modern teaching methods against the frequent charge that they are superficial and that boys and girls leave school unprepared for practical problems of earning a livelihood. The deficient individual is a deficient student, as well as a misfit in adult life, Chessall said, and the trend of education is toward helping such individuals to adapt to their inevitable problems.

The union high school, which brings students from outlying districts into one efficient, well-staffed plant, is one of the finest developments of modern education, Chessall said in pointing out that the local high school would serve only about one-third of the students now enrolled if it were not for unionization and the excellent transportation system maintained by the union district.

Davis For President

Carl Daubeneck, president, led the discussion for publicizing the promotion of W. K. Davis of Ukiah for district governor.

Signs advertising the campaign will fly over Hoberg's resort at the district convention and an airplane has been engaged to fly over the resort and dramatize to the delegates the promotion of the local man for the district office.

Don Nassie was named chairman of the committee which in sponsoring the Modeleers' contest.

PHILLIPS FACING LIFE IN PRISON

Auto Theft Third Major Crime Charged Against Him

James Phillips who was involved in a mass violation of the traffic laws on the night of April 24, when he crashed into the car of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murray of San Francisco, is in the Sonoma county jail in lieu of the $3000 bail set by Justice Gibbins of Cloverdale, before whom Phillips appeared on Tuesday of last week to face charges of car theft.

One part of the story which was not learned here is that Phillips had an accident near Hopland with a borrowed car and returned to Cloverdale where he stole a Lincoln Zephyr belonging to William Ritch, and headed north again.

This side of the county line, near the George Edwards ranch, he collided with the Murray car on a curve which Phillips was taking at high speed on the wrong side of the dividing line.

Mrs. Murray's injuries were five broken ribs, a broken ankle and arm and a gash in her head that almost scalped her. She received treatment at the office of Dr. Frank Sohler, Jr., at Cloverdale and was taken to the hospital at Healdsburg.

Phillips was brought to Ukiah by Highway Patrolmen Shortridge and Stinehoff. Here he was booked and turned over to the Sonoma county authorities for prosecution for car theft. Phillips disappeared after the accident and was arrested at his lodging house in Santa Rosa. His record shows two previous convictions for car theft and he could be sentenced to life imprisonment. Justice Gibbins will hold the preliminary hearing Tuesday morning.

Army O.K.'s Russian Flood Control Plans

SACRAMENTO, May 5. (WNS)—Members of the state water resources board plan a meeting in Ukiah June 3, from 9 to 10 o'clock, as a part of a 4-day tour during which they will view a large number of proposed projects in north coastal counties.

The tour is scheduled to start June 2 from San Francisco, and the board members on that day will view projects in Marin and Sonoma counties, spending the night in Ukiah.

Following the business meeting, the board plans to visit the Coyote dam site, which is a part of the Russian river project. This project contemplates a 140,000 acre foot reservoir on Coyote creek east of Ukiah, construction of a dam on Dry creek between Healdsburg with a 120,000 acre foot reservoir and channel stabilization on the Russian river above Santa Rosa.

Power Development

In addition, plans are being considered for hydroelectric development and export of excess water to an area extending from Santa Rosa south to the San Francisco bay region.

From Ukiah, the group will go north to the Eel and Van Duzen rivers, holding an evening meeting in Eureka June 3, where they will spend the night.

On June 4 the group will view the Mad river project, and the Klamath-Trinity river projects, returning for another night in Eureka.

Members of the board are Royal Miller, Sacramento, chairman; B. A. Etcheverry, Berkeley; H. F. Cozzens, Salinas; R. V. Meikle, Turlock; C. A. Griffith, Azusa; Phil D. Swing, San Diego. Edward Hyatt, state engineer, plans to make the trip.

A program to conserve and control floods on the Russian river was recommended by the Army Corps of Engineers in a report made public Tuesday.

The program includes construction of a $16,900,000 dam in Coyote valley about four miles northeast of Ukiah on the Ukiah-Tahoe highway, route 20.

Also recommended for the immediate future is a $900,000 channel stabilization program on the Russian river and future construction of a reservoir on Dry creek about four and one-half miles west of Cloverdale.

Lessen Flood Damage

The report says that the immediate program would decrease future flood damage in the Russian river area by 60 per cent, would provide a minimum of 200 acre feet of water in the Russian river resort area throughout the summer and fall, and would provide adequate municipal and industrial water supplies for Ukiah and the Sanel valleys.

The engineers' report recommends a 2-stage construction of the Coyote valley dam:

Initially it would be built for a storage capacity of 122,000 acre feet, at an estimated cost of $16,900,000. Enlargement to the ultimate capacity of 199,000 acre feet, the report said, would be delayed until there is demand for water supplies in areas outside the Russian river basin.

Eventually, according to the engineers' report, a local flood control and water conservation district will be formed, with its boundaries closely following the boundaries of the Russian River watershed.

The body will be responsible for co-operating financially with the federal government and for taking over the local share of maintaining the project following the completion of construction.

The report adds that this does not preclude contribution of funds by the state and other subdivisions of local government.

Completion of the report follows a long fight for flood control measures on the Russian river.

It was not until recently, with the rapidly expanding population of the northbay area, that water conservation also became an element of the project.

Pioneered Flood Control

As early as 1930 a group of residents along the Russian river watershed first agitated for flood control.

The movement was given impetus by the flood of 1937, which caused damage estimated at over $2,000,000.

In that year Congressman Lea won Congressional authorization of a preliminary examination and survey of the river for flood control.

This was followed by a survey report by the army corps of engineers. It was submitted in January, 1941, but the board of engineers for rivers and harbors issued an unfavorable public notice, quashing the project.

This survey was based only on flood control benefits. In December, 1944, congress amended the flood control acts to provide, in effect, that survey reports for flood control should include full consideration of all related water uses, such as recreation, irrigation, domestic and industrial water supplies, power development and conservation of fish and wildlife.

It was on this basis that the current report has been issued.

Baptists Report Important Gains

The annual meeting of the First Baptist church was held April 28 in the church sanctuary with a large number of members and friends in attendance.

Reports of the various departments showed the largest and most remarkable gains in the history of the church. Of outstanding importance was the fact that the Sunday school has an average of 190 each week for the past three months. More members have been received into the church than at any other time.

Expenditures for the year totaled $16,270 with over $5000 going again for missons and benevolences. The church achieved a new record by contributing $99 per week for such purposes alone.

Gifts of money were voted for Jewish mission work, to aged ministers and to the Young People's work of the Clear Lake association.

Inasmuch as the pastor's wife, Mrs. Brown, had been selected by the denomination to represent northern California at the National Conference and Laboratory School in Green Lake, Wisconsin, the church voted to supplement the scholarship by $225.

Election of officers concluded the evening with the following chosen:

Deacons—J. A. Freeman, J. J. Kunzler, J. E. Layman, Ted Hamilton, C. B. Hopkins, Charles Grist.

Trustees — Clarence Sackett, Walter Higgins, W. B. Stoughton, J. B. Cook, Mrs. Lloyd Tyer, Warren Lindberg, Vernon Bickford.

Deaconesses — Mesdames J. B. Cook, Clarence Sackett, George Ward, Emma Layman, A. B. Adams, Bertha Smith, Lila Weifenback, Sydney Welch.

Church Clerk, John Rumer; Treasurer, Rosalie Gibson; Sunday School Superintendent, Pete Richardson; Superintendent Primary Department, Mrs. Chester Hahn; Sunday School Secretary-Treasurer, Bryan Franz.

A buffet supper was served in the social room with Mrs. T. A. Webb as chairman.

Jackson Valley's Old School House Burned

An old school house near Branscomb, one of Jackson valley's oldest landmarks, was destroyed by fire last week. It was built in the early 90's and served the district for many years.

Lawrence Branscomb of Laytonville, John Haun of Fort Bragg and Lile, George and Leslie Vann of Covelo were among the first pupils enrolled in the school, which was abandoned eight years ago.

Students Write Of San Francisco Trip

When William Martinez took his sixth grade to San Francisco for a day's sightseeing last Saturday, the students wrote so many good accounts of the journey we wish we could use them all. Space forbids that so we are printing excerpts:

OUR AMAZING TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO
By Donna Hammons & Janet Rust

Mr. Martinez's class left Ukiah at 6:30 Saturday morning. We had the most luscious driver, his name is Dale Laney . . . Mrs. Rust wasn't able to attend our wild trip. We hit the Golden Gate bridge at 10 o'clock and it hit us for three bucks.

The first place we went was the arboretum. We all were divided into groups. Mrs. Hammons took some of the boys and Mr. Martinez took the rest of the boys. Mrs. Myers took some of the girls and so did Mrs. Witt.

A TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO
By Don Mey

We left Ukiah at 6:30 a.m. with Glenn missing and Otis forgot his slip and we stopped at his house to get a slip . . . In Petaluma we stopped to get a little exercise . . . we went right through Santa Rosa at 9:35 and at last got to the Golden Gate bridge. The fee was $6 both ways.

. . . . We went to the museum and the African animals. The next place we went to the aquarium and then we had lunch in the looked over the animals. Oh, by the way, our bus driver was a the way our bus driver was a really nice fellow named Dale Laney. We rode the ferris wheel and the merry go round and thanks to Mr. Martinez and the mothers.

A TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO
By Joeann Mitchell, Ernest Neese, Jimmy Wright, Jerry Anderson and Kenneth Kunzler

. . . We started singing Now Is The Hour and Across The Field Of Golden Green and Four Leaf Clover . . . when we crossed the Golden Gate bridge we saw a beautiful view. There wasn't one cloud of fog. People were going around without coats. (In the arboretum) the flowers were in bloom and they were beautiful . . . We went to the museum. We saw a sea lion that weighed 1810 pounds. We also saw many different kinds of animals . . . The third place we visited was the aquarium, we saw big fish, little fish and middle sized fish. We saw a turtle that weighed about 300 or 400 pounds.

We ate lunch and went to the zoo. We saw a spitting ape and some elephants. Everyone wanted to go to the playgrounds. On the way back to the bus we couldn't find Rupert Witt and Robert LaDuke. When we reached the bus they were sitting in it. We stopped (in Petaluma) to get something to eat. We arrived in Ukiah at 8:30 p.m. We were all so tired we could hardly make it home.

Minnie Padgett vs. Hiram Padgett. Plaintiff granted intetrlocutory decree of divorce on ground of wilful desertion.

Military Training Bill Is Popular

Our local opinion poll this week brought surprising results. Assuming, from the skittish attitude of congress toward UMT—in an election year—that opposition was likely to be violent and vocal, particularly among women, we framed our question, "Are you opposed to universal military training?"

The majority of Ukiah people are not opposed to it. They don't like it, but they see it as a necessary part of our defense structure and greatly preferable to drafting untrained men into an army that could be hurled unprepared into war.

Many who preferred not to be quoted said they were in favor of it. Only three of all those questioned were actuall opposed. Two were men. These are the answers we got:

W. H. Brunner, attorney: "I am in favor of it. My reasons are twofold. First—In the world as it is constituted today, we require trained reserves. We have a small nucleus of highly trained military men in regular service; we need the trained reserves for k.p. in the background.

"Second—It would be an excellent thing for a population notoriously undisciplined, and this is particularly true of our young people who lack family discipline. Military training would have a tendency to develop a sense of responsibility which is woefully lacking. I wish that when I got out of college I had had two years of military training before I went into practise."

Dr. L. K. Van Allen, physician: "Yes, I am opposed to it. I think it would regiment our young people and teach them to jump at the voice of authority. It would spoil the initiative on the part of our American soldiers which has been the thing that won our wars."

Mrs. Ernest Shoemake, homemaker: "I think they need it."

Robert Jardine, insurance man: "I favor it rather than the draft. It isn't typical of America to regiment itself, but in these times it's a good idea. While in South America in 1937 I heard of a military training system that appealed to me—one year of training for each man who reached the age of 21."

Mrs. W. K. Davis, homemaker: "I'm not in favor of it. With two sons in the last war and grandsons coming on, I'm opposed to it."

Max Berlin, druggist: "It's a very fine idea. I wouldn't be opposed to it at all."

Mrs. Harry Roberts, homemaker: "Both my husband and I are in favor of it. If we get into another war it will give our boys a better chance to be trained. It will help their education."

M. L. DeKeno, state hospital employee: "I'm for it, absolutely. The best offense is a good defense. If we'd had a good standing army we never would have had Pearl Harbor."

Mrs. Jess Rawles, homemaker: "I'm in favor of it."

Charles Fravel, school maintenance man: "It's a good thing. I'm in favor of it."

George D. Merk, radio dealer: "It's probably a good thing to have trained men ready for anything that happens and perhaps the best way to provide them is through military training."

Hale McCowen, attorney: "We've got to have it. I'm not in sympathy with it any more than I'm in sympathy with war, but it's necessary for our own protection. I think Roosevelt was right in 1940 when he advocated such reserves. Now, as things are, it is inevitable."

F. J. Gorman, telephone company: "I'm for it. We've got to be prepared for whatever is ahead."

Charles T. Smith, bookkeeper: "It's a matter of your own protection; the way conditions are today, I believe it is necessary."

Twelve women questioned, who preferred not to be quoted, were in favor of UMT. Only one man refused to be quoted, a member of the naval reserve who felt his military connections forbade his speaking. He was very much opposed to it on the grounds of recent military service and an intellectual abhorrence of war.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"What's Your Opinion, Mister?"

Fellow from one of those public opinion polls was in Andy's Garden Tavern, querying Andy's patrons on everything from that "new look" to the next election.

And it occurred to me that there's nothing more typically American than collecting other folks' opinions, as well as giving out with one's own. And from where I sit, it's a mighty healthy habit.

So long as people can discuss both sides of a question that comes up—whether it concerns short skirts versus long, beer compared with cider, or the larger issues of party versus party—we're sure of the individual liberty that has made this country great.

For it isn't differences of opinion that matter. The important thing is tolerance for differences of opinion—whether they affect the right of an individual to vote, to speak his mind, or enjoy a glass of beer. They're all parts of the freedom that we cherish!
